A retrospect of the 33th Congress of the Union of Middle-Eastern and Mediterranean Pediatric Societies, 4-7 May 2011, Amman, Jordan

The Congress was organized under the patronage of the Prime Minister of Jordan. Ali Attia Al Matti was the President of the Congress. Congress held at the Congress Hall of Landmark Hotel, Amman. The motto of the congress was “For Better Health for Our Children”. In the Opening Ceremony in the evening of May 4, 2011, Basim Al Zoubi, President of the Scientific Committee, Enver Hasanoglu, Secretary General of UMEMPS, Ali Al-Halabi, President of UMEPS, Ali Attia Al Matti, President of the Congress, Ahmad Al Armouti, President of the Jordanian Medical Association, and Yasin Husban, the Minister of Health have had opening remarks. Scientific sessions of the Congress took place on May 5-7, 2011 with more than 550 registered participants from Middle-Eastern and Mediterranean countries. In the Closing Ceremony, the place of forthcoming congress is announced to be held in Greece in 2012.

Yasin Husban, the Minister of Health.
Commemorative plaque presentation to Enver Hasanoglu, Secretary of UMEMPS.